

THURSDAY, APRIL 17 1902.

Local and Personal.

—Read calls of Presidents democratic clubs.

—See call of W. T. O'Dell, county chairman.

—E. Foster Keith announces for Auditor this week.

—Mrs. B. Craig Baker is quite sick with pneumonia.

—Mr. G. R. Hendricks announces for Treasurer this week.

—Dr. W. F. Austin, Dentist, will be in Easley, Apr. 22 and 23.

—Rev. B. Holder will preach at Second church next Sunday at 3 o'clock p. m.

—Quarterly Conference for North Pickens circuit will be held Friday 18.

Some very fine pigs one month old for sale $2.50 each.

Ivy M. Mauldin.

—W. A. Christopher son of ex-Auditor, N. A. Christopher, if assisting Treasurer Chapman.

—E. G. McAdams, a successful young attorney of Anderson, was in Pickens Tuesday on professional business.

—J. Douglas Jenkins, attorney, went over to Greenville Monday to look after his cases in the United States Court.

—We print this week the constitution of the democratic party of South Carolina which might be read to advantage.

—E. E. Rankin, the genial representative of the Greenville News, spent Monday night and Tuesday in Pickens in the interests of his paper.

—Hamp Rowland, convicted at the last term of court on the charge of bigamy, has been pardoned by the Governor, and released.

—All Methodist in Pickens circuit please take notice that the second Quarterly Conference 1902 will be held Saturday 19th inst., at Bethlehem.

—We are glad to note that Miss Josie Earle, daughter of Mr. James W. Earle, is improving. She has been very low with pneumonia.

—The County Commissioners' office is a busy place. Those gentlemen are working to get everything in tip-top shape. Maj. Stewart, Clerk, is giving them most valuable help.

—Two unfortunate children, for some days confined in jail, were carried to the Asylum Tuesday, they having been adjudged proper subjects for treatment in that institution. Their names are Willie and Lodie Couch.

—J. E. Boggs and J. D. Jenkins have formed a partnership for the practice of law at Pickens. Mr. Jenkins has moved to Pickens and entered upon the work of the new firm whose office is over the Pickens Bank.

—The Pickens County Singing Convention will convene with Bethlehem Methodist church one mile south of Pickens C. H., on Saturday before the fourth Sunday in April at 10 o'clock a. m. The change is made on account of the quarterly conference at Zion.

—The people are going to the exposition and who go return with nothing but praises for Charleston and the big show. During the present week, the following were among the exposition visitors: Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Morris, Edgar and Furman Morris, Mrs. B. E. Grandy and Lloyd Grandy, Sheriff J. H. G. McDaniel, E. G. McDaniel, "Bubba" McDaniel and Miss Sallie McDaniel, Dr. and Mrs. Webb, E. Hamp Craig, Ben LaBoon and J. T. Rieley.

—Mrs. Harriett McWhorter, widow of the late Gideon McWhorter, died at the home of her son, Wm. McWhorter, near Sandy Springs Anderson county, April 8th aged 72 years, and was buried at Sandy Springs the day following, the funeral services being conducted by Rev. Beardon. She leaves only one child, Wm. McWhorter, one sister, Mrs. Barnett Smith and two brothers J. W. and Stephen A. Major. She had been for about 60 years a consistent member of the Methodist church.

Mr. J. Douglas Jenkins.

We clip the following from the Greenwood Journal, and with pleasure give it space in this paper:

Mr. J. Douglas Jenkins, a young lawyer who has been here six months assisting E. B. Grier, Esq., with his office work, goes to Pickens today and will be associated in the practice of law with Julius E. Boggs, Esq., at that place.

Mr. Jenkins is from Colleton county and is a relative of General Meek Jenkins, who was killed at the battle of the Wilderness. We regret that Mr. Jenkins could not find it to his interest to remain here as he is an excellent young man whose ambition is worthy and whose aim is high. Solicitor Boggs has been here for some time on having been in town for some time.

Mr. Jenkins is from Colleton county and is a relative of General Meek Jenkins, who was killed at the battle of the Wilderness. We regret that Mr. Jenkins could not find it to his interest to remain here as he is an excellent young man whose ambition is worthy and whose aim is high. Solicitor Boggs

Joseph Freeman, died at her home three miles South of Pickens Court House, on April 10th 1902, at 6 o'clock p. m., and the remains were laid to rest beside her husband at Cross Roads church on Saturday 12th inst., Revs. J. E. Foster and W. C. Seaborn conducting the funeral services. Death was not unexpected by relatives and intimate friends, as she had been in failing health for some time. She was 73 years old. She leaves eight children, four sons and four daughters: Wm. Freeman, of Arkadelphia, Ala., Morton, Thomas and Prof. B. F. Freeman, of Pickens, Mrs. C. T. Hutchins, of Liberty, Mrs. A. A. Moon, Misses Eva and Josie Freeman, of Pickens, besides numerous other relatives and friends to mourn the loss of a friend and mother.

She was a member of Second Baptist church, a true christian, strong in faith and ever ready to lend a helping hand to those that might, by the laws of nature, have been unfortunate in any way.

Her husband died about twenty-eight years ago, and she, with her own labors, supported and reared her small children to man and womanhood.

Surrounded by her children, she was perfectly resigned to meet her Maker. In sadness we say that not often do we fully appreciate the nobleness in christian spirit like hers, until it is gone.

To the bereft, we extend our heartfelt sympathy, and may the example and influence for good, as set by this dear mother, help us onward to that eternal resting place prepared for those that die in the faith of Jesus.

She has met and filled every duty, both physical and divine. Now, may we, with like faith and fidelity, comply with the Great Architect, and at last reach home—yes, home forever more.

Yes, dear mother, we will miss thee, and parting filled us with pain. But Jesus promises that near we'll see thee And that our loss 'twas heaven's gain.

Oh! dear mother, we will miss thee. That work is done, the trials past. May Jesus help us to follow thee. We may reach that home at last.

Yes, dear mother, we will miss thee. But 'twill not be for long. We have hope to see and greet thee. And join thee in that heavenly throng.

Oh! dear mother, we will miss thee. But Christ, his loved ones will not sever. Again may we see and know thee. Where parting will be no more—no never.

A Friend.

EASLEY.

V. A. Howard and F. E. Pickens of Southern Ry., spent Sunday in visiting at the homes of their parents.

Cadets Edward Bowen and Earl Miller spent Saturday and Sunday at homes of their parents. They say it is a treat to get home occasionally, where rations are prepared somewhat out of the line of sameness which characterizes college fare.

Ernest L. Hamilton who is engaged with Bowen Lumber Co., of Norris came up Saturday and spent Sunday with his parents.

The K. of P. Lodge went through with a rush on the night of the 5th inst. Twenty odd members is the strength of this new Lodge. Atlanta, Greenville, Anderson and Seneca sent delegations of their up to date knights to help the boys water the goat that wears K. P. Horns. They succeeded admirably, and the goat was fully satisfied along near 5 a. m. the morning of the 9th.

C. G. Voigt and family are stopping at the Easley Hotel. Mr. Voigt, as General Manager of Easley Creamery Company, will make this place his home. Coming as he does to engage in a new enterprise, Mr. Voigt should have the great good will and the support of all who favor and desire the establishment of new industries in this section.

Sunday morning 6th inst at 7.25 Mrs. Carolina I. Clyde wife of J. B. Clyde passed away. Mrs. Clyde had been a sufferer from heart failure for several months and her death was not unexpected. In February 1834 on the 18th day Mrs. Clyde was born, being at her death 68 years 1 mo., and 18 days of age. Mrs. Clyde was greatly esteemed by all who knew her, and her many friends heartily mourn her death. She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Higgins, Ballard and Kirksey. On Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock Revs. Hott and Wiggins, in the presence of a large congregation of friends and relatives of the deceased, held the funeral services in the M. E. Church, afterwards the remains were laid to rest in Easley Cemetery.

Maha.

We had a large frost Tuesday night but the fruit is not killed yet.

Farmers are making rapid progress farming. Some of them have planted corn.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Hallums moved out on their farm last week.

Miss Daisy and Ralph Boroughs were the guests at Mr. R. T. Hallums last Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Sue Robertson, Mrs. Tola Parrott and children visited Miss Caroline Clayton the first Sunday.

Messrs. Willie and Olin Clayton visited relatives in Anderson last Saturday and Sunday.

S.

Wanted.

All kinds of watches and Jewelry to repair. Work and prices guaranteed. H. SNIDER, Easley, S. C.

Sunshine and high drying winds have dried off the lands and farmers got in a good week's work last week and many of them planted a good portion of their crops, both corn and cotton. Fruit trees are not all in bloom; this seems the latest spring on record. The peaches have not been seriously injured, notwithstanding mercury dropped one degree below freezing one night last week.

We notice Andrew Norris has returned from Birmingham, Ala., where he went to seek his fortune last fall.

Cliff Parsons knight of the Telegraph Key, of Georgia, is visiting among relatives.

To Charleston and Dallas to Old Soldier reunion is the talk with many our citizens.

M. A. Boggs and S. D. Stewart attended Presbytery last week. Owing to Presbytery being in session, there was no preaching here Sunday.

From the crowd that passed here yesterday, to and from Flat Rock the all day singing must have been well attended.

Dr. Smith has been quite sick the past week. C.

Apr 14.

Norris.

We are having some fine weather now and the farmers are making good use of their time putting in guano, planting corn and cotton seed.

There are several cases of measles and whooping cough in and around here.

Miss Lucy Garvin, of Central, is visiting her sister here this week.

Miss Margaret Johnston who lives near here and who has for some time been in failing health for some time has passed from this world to the place of rest. She was about 53 years old. She died April, 5th and was buried the day following at the old Johnston cemetery near home. She was a consistent member of the Methodist church for a number of years. She leaves six brothers and sisters and a host of friends and relatives to mourn her loss.

Wheat and oats are growing and spreading nicely now.

Farmer.

Sheriff.

Rev. W. E. Wiggins filled his regular appointment at Zion church last Sunday and delivered an excellent sermon from the first verse of the CXXI, Psalm.

We have a good Sunday School at Zion church now with 85 pupils enrolled and Mr. J. J. Cantrell as Superintendent.

Prof. J. B. Vaughn from Bowman Ga., is to be with us at the County Singing Convention which convenes at Zion church the fourth Sunday of this month. He desires to meet all his Pickens county friends and we hope everybody will come to the convention. Prof. Vaughn is one of the sweetest singers we have ever heard and no one will regret coming to old Zion to hear him sing. We are expecting a grand time at the convention and are making homes for the many delegates that we are looking for.

Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Dixon, of Piedmont, visited at A. J. Welborn's last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wyatt visited friends and relatives of this community last week.

Commissioner A. J. Welborn has gone to Greenville to serve as petit juror at the United States Court.

Prof. J. F. and John M. Lesley attended the association which met at Flat Rock last Sunday and report a grand time.

Chatter Box.

Vineyard.

News is scarce as people have all been quite busy.

Cotton planting is the order of the day with a great many of our farmers, though some think it is too early and are planting their corn instead.

Col. R. E. Bowen is in attendance at the Presbytery which is now in session at Abbeville.

Miss Ola Williams, of our section, is visiting relatives in Greenville, will return home Sunday.

The health of A. B. Kay is apparently on the decline according to his knowledge but let us hope that he will recover.

Our Sunday School at George's Creek put on new life again last Sabbath, at which time E. E. Perry was elected to succeed T. T. Barton as Superintendent. Let us make an effort to have a good school.

The young people of our vicinity spent the afternoon very pleasantly at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Perry in singing and conversation. They are indeed a hospitable people and know how to entertain their guests.

Candidates! Where are you? We are looking for you but you seem to come kindly as the Lubricating oils on the spindle, "a drop at the time."

MISS LULA ANDERSON, who has been teaching five months.

Misses Rachel and Hattie Harris, Lula Anderson, Ida and Bertie Hendricks, Belle Edens, accompanied by Quincy Edens are taking in the exposition this week.

Messrs. Robt. L. Jones and L. A. Roper went to North Carolina last week and brought back Charley Johnson, the negro charged with so much stealing, in this settlement.

Mr. Wade Chastain arrested a negro by the name of Bobo and delivered him to a constable from Woodruff, S. C. He is charged with stealing a bale of cotton there. He has been making his home on upper Oolenoy for some time and it was suspected that he had done some mischief.

Mrs. M. Hendricks and daughter, Lenora will start to Texas in a few days. They will spend some time there visiting relatives and friends.

Everybody in our settlement seems to be enjoying good health.

A large crowd attended services at Oolenoy the first Sunday. Rev. S. A. McDaniel delivered an able sermon. The Sunday-school there is taking on new life as Spring advances. S.

Six Mile.

We have had fine spring like days and the farmers are making good use of their time. Some are still in the guano business, and some are done for this year. But the best time for the dealer will be next fall.

The health of our community is very good at this time, although your scribe and wife have been under the weather some time with something like the grip. I am very fond of reading the news in the Journal from different parts of the county through your correspondents. It gives an idea of how our county is progressing. The Journal is a welcome visitor in our homes. We read it all, Bill Arrp's letter too. I think if I know myself aright as one that wants to see our grand old country come to the front in the way of farming and manufacturing.

We want a man to run a first-class store at the McEl. Farmer old stand, as it will be a public place in the near future. A fine roller mill where you can get good flour, then a good store to buy your goods. It is the best stand in West Pickens, so come on and look at the situation.

And again, we want a good doctor in our part of this county for they are scarce and to set up a first class drug store in connection with a good dry goods and grocery store, the way is open for some one to make money, and again an oil mill is what we need in our country. There are men here who would give the ground for one, some one will say it is too far from the R. R. Build all such enterprises and the R. R. will come to it.

We are afraid the fruit is killed as we had ice this and yesterday morning and the blooms quite sick.

I will tell your readers in my next of other enterprises we want and need in West Pickens.

A VALUABLE MEDICINE. FOR COUGHS AND COLDS IN CHILDREN.

"I have not the slightest hesitancy in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to all who are suffering from coughs or colds, says Chas. M. Cramor, Esq., a well known watch maker, of Colombo, Ceylon. 'It has been some two years since the City Dispensary first called my attention to this valuable medicine and I have repeatedly used it and it has always been beneficial. It has cured me quickly of all chest colds. It is especially effective for children and seldom takes more than one bottle to cure them of hoarseness. I have persuaded many to try this valuable medicine, and they are all as well pleased as myself over the result.' For sale by G. W. Earle Druggist.

NOTICE.

DEARFUL ATTACK OF WHOOPING COUGH.

Mrs. Ellen Harrison, of 300 Park Ave., Kansas City, Mo., writes as follows: "Our two children had a severe attack of whooping cough, one of them in the paroxysm of coughing would often faint and bleed at the nose. We tried every thing we heard of without getting relief. We then called in our family doctor who prescribed Foley's Honey and Tar. With the very first dose they began to improve and we feel that it has saved their lives. Refused substitutes. Bolt & Thornley Pickens, Chapman & Callahan, Liberty.
